LIMITED EDITION

Limited Edition Cuban Cigars are a prestigious series introduced by Habanos S.A. in 2000, featuring exclusive vitolas that are not part of the regular production lineup. Crafted with care, these cigars utilise tobacco aged for two years or more, resulting in rich, complex flavours and a unique darker wrapper. Each year typically sees the release of three standout cigars, each adorned with two bands: a standard production band and a distinctive black-and-gold "Edición Limitada" band featuring the release year.

CHINESE YEAR SERIES

Chinese Year (Año Chino) Series by Habanos S.A. features premium, large-format cigars launched annually around the Chinese New Year. Initially released in Hong Kong, these exclusive cigars became globally available shortly thereafter. Each release is elegantly packaged in luxurious red and gold boxes containing 8 or 18 cigars, complete with footbands depicting the current Chinese zodiac animal. Typically limited to 8,888 pieces, these cigars embody the rich tradition of celebration and craftsmanship. The release year reflects the announcement made at the Festival del Habanos, showcasing the artistry of Habanos as they honour the zodiac cycle.

RESERVA SERIES

The Reserva and Gran Reserva Series by Habanos S.A. represent the pinnacle of cigar craftsmanship, with the Reserva series, introduced in 2003, featuring standard production sizes made from specially selected tobacco aged for a minimum of three years, packaged in luxurious lacquered boxes and released every other year as a premium offering. The Grand Reserva series, launched in 2009, elevates this exclusivity by using specially selected tobacco aged for a minimum of five years, presented in numbered lacquered boxes and also adhering to a biennial release schedule. Together, both series embody exceptional quality and sophistication, appealing to the most discerning cigar enthusiasts.
